

Roberto Cortez

Architect

roberto.c@pelusoconsortium.com

2023 – present

Architect PCC (LATAM)

Leads PCC's LATAM conservation and renovation efforts in maintenance of historical structures. Expertise in sustainable design strategies landscapes, and energy management.

2018 – 2022

Muka Arquitectura Madrid (Spain)

Sustainability/Design architect, specializing in restoration, landscape, urban, and construction projects.

2015 – 2018

UPV Universitat Politècnica de València (Spain)

Master's Degree in Conservation and Restoration of Cultural Property

2013 – 2015

Apprenticeship Paris, (France, EGA)

Projects/Focus: Renewable energy, decarbonization technologies, bioclimatic, low-energy, and passive design of buildings and developments techniques.

2009 – 2013

Bachelors Architecture (BArch) (Guadalajara)

ITESO, Jesuit University of Guadalajara